LIQUORS, CIGARS.

Come to the Fair.

Hurrah for the Fair," the old farmers shout,
As Bobbin is brown apace to the door,
At Thanksgiving, etc., are piled in the cart,
All gathered with care from the old farmers store

Then come to the Fair, let us see what you have,
We've a welcome for all, maid, matron and sire,
Bring your horses and daughters your oxen and sons,
Our welcome is forward and forward means higher.

An ether in our city, the pride of the West,
And crowds in the streets and the stores,
You will want a Cigar to give zest to your taste
And add to the interest you feel in the Fair

If you've had a trial to point out the place,
Our Cigars are selected with excellent care,
Then remember our store with its "Indian" in front,
At Eghlance at our card when you visit the Fair

MEETING AT THE CAMP HOUSE LAST NIGHT!

Addresses of Hon. John L. Potter and Others.

The old Fremont Camp House has seldom, during this campaign, held a larger or more enthusiastic crowd than the one which assembled last evening, in spite of the inclemency of the weather, to greet our noble-hearted candidate for Congress, John F. Potter. The house was well filled at an early hour, and was tolerably well pervaded, previous to Mr. Potter's appearance, by Mr. Booth, of the Free Democrat

Alex. Mitchell, Esq., took the chair, and after a brief preliminary speech, testifying to his own interest in the good cause, and to the high character of our candidate, introduced Judge Potter to the audience, who greeted him with prolonged cheers.

As soon as order was restored, Mr. Potter proceeded in a voice and with a manner which at once attracted and throughout preserved the close attention of the audience, to remark upon the issue of the day, upon which he stands before us a candidate for Congress. In the commencement of his address he said that this was the second time he had appeared before a Milwaukee audience—the first time having been 18 years ago, at a Settler's Meeting in this place, then containing some 500 people: and the object of that meeting of free settlers to consult about their interests, give the speaker an excellent text for remarks in—these times when the issue is whether or not other Territories shall be free, or be cursed with Slavery. We took no notes of the able speech of Judge Potter, but we appeal to every man who heard him whether he did not approve himself what we have declared him to be, a man of ability, of eloquence, and of determination in the cause of Freedom; and whether our interests, as regards national and local affairs, will not be safe in his hands. We believe firmly that they will, and that John L. Potter ought to be—MUST BE ELECTED.

So thought the vast audience last night, to judge by the deafening cheers with which they met the suggestion, as made by Mr. Twiss, who spoke briefly, but with a solid emphasis, after Judge Potter closed.

Byron Paine was called out by the audience, and was commencing an address, in which he is always able and interesting to an audience, when we were obliged to leave the house.

It was, altogether, a most gratifying occasion, and Judge Potter created an excellent impression. The more our people know of him, the better they will like him. Have his name on the ballot next Tuesday, and carry him with the first on the ticket, and he is elected, without fail.

SPEAKING OUT IN MEETING.—The New York Express of Friday last says, speaking of the result in Pennsylvania:

"IT IS A WELL ASCERTAINED FACT, THAT THOUSANDS OF FILLMORE MEN, WHIGS AND AMERICANS HAVE, AT THE RECENT ELECTION, VOTED THE DEMOCRATIC TICKET."

That admission speaks volumes. If Fillmore does not decline, the Locofocos will lose THOUSANDS, who voted their ticket on the 14th of October.

THE LATE ELECTIONS!

A GOOD LOOK AHEAD!

All Together Now For Victory!

From the New York Tribune, Monday.

We have not been inclined to belittle the reverses of our friends in Pennsylvania and Indiana. We were sorely disappointed and depressed by them, and said so frankly. We are now able to assure our friends everywhere that the prospect has greatly brightened within the last few days. All our advices from both States are cheering. The sincere friends of Fillmore, though they threw Indiana against us at the State election, cannot afford to do it again.—They want to get the election into the House; and to do this they see that their State must not go for Buchanan. So in Illinois; so in Connecticut. Whoever really means to elect Fillmore through the agency of Congress must perceive that it will not do to throw Free States to Buchanan. Thus our late reverses are likely to prove an important element of strength in the approaching contest. Meantime the Fremonters are working with desperate energy, and good reports come in from every quarter. In a single poll district in Chester County, Pa., there are fifty-six Fremont voters who were not at the State election. They are coming out next week, and will bring their neighbors with them. Friends of Fremont and Dayton! we make no boasts—we do not promise you success; but you can win it if you will. Just altogether resolve that you will! Township Organization, resolve, and a week's resolute work by all hands, will secure you triumph.—Can you not all give this week to your country?

An Important Correction.

A friend in the country calls our attention to the fact that the American of this city, prints through mistake, the name of Mr. Menzel, one of the Electors, wrong. His name is GREGOR Menzel, not GEORGE.

LOOK OUT FOR ILLEGAL VOTES!

REPUBLICANS! Remember the means so boldly and unblushingly used, last fall, to elect Wm. A. Barstow Governor—the fraudulent votes, the bogus supplemental returns, and the false canvass! The same men who were prominent in that attempt to cheat the People out of their honest choice, are still in the field and prominent leaders of their party. Look out for them!

Numbers no doubt will endeavor to vote, on their first papers, who have not resided in this State one year. They are inducted to do so, by the false representations of reckless demagogues. See that no such fraudulent votes get into the ballot boxes. Friends everywhere! WATCH THE POLLS!

The Trade Between the Buchanniers and the Dark Lantern Bearers.

We understand, says the New York Evening Post, that the contemplated arrangement between the Buchanites and the Brookses to "sell out," Fillmore in this state for the Governorship and the United States Senatorship is rapidly progressing. In Oswego it is completed, and all the local nominations have been made with a view of giving an undivided support of the Buchaniers for Erastus Brooks for Governor, and for know nothing assemblymen, pledged to the election of Daniel Ullman as U. S. Senator in place of Fish. We observe that, in pursuance of this arrangement, the Buchaniers of Poughkeepsie have nominated an Ullman know-nothing for the assembly.

This confirms the impression which we formed and expressed early in the canvas, that the leaders of the so-called Fillmore faction have no sympathy whatever with any movement that looks to a limitation of Slavery, and that they are only running Fillmore as a mask to cover their professions to their candidate and to the cause of freedom and order, which they dare not openly abandon. Fillmore is to be dropped to make Erastus Brooks Governor, Daniel Ullman United States Senator, and James Buchanan President. It is to this entertainment that the adopted citizens of this great state are to be invited. All we have to say is, that every adopted citizen who votes for Buchanan deserves to have Brooks for Governor.

Notice to Inspectors of Election.

The attention of Inspectors of Election is invited to the circular in our morning's paper from the Telegraph office, Chicago; pointing out a mode of promptly communicating to all parts of the Union the result of the Presidential Election on Tuesday next. The main things to be attended to, on the part of Judges and Clerks of Election, are; first, TO COUNT THE VOTE FOR ELECTORS; and, second, to transmit that vote, without delay, to the nearest telegraph, or mail station, that it may be forwarded immediately to Milwaukee, or Chicago. If pains are taken to do this, we shall doubtless know, on the day after election, how nearly every State in the Union has voted.

Taking Extra Pay.

The Nix is down on Mr. Burchard, a member of the late Assembly from Dodge County, for taking more pay than he rendered service.—It is silent, however, about Mr. Greulich, the Buchanan candidate for Senator in the 5th District. This gentleman charged and received THREE HUNDRED AND SIXTY-TWO DOLLARS for 22 day's work! This is at the rate of about SIXTEEN DOLLARS AND A HALF per day! What do Tax Payers think of that style of charging?

LET THE ENEMY BRAG!

"Brag is a good dog, but Holdfast is a better!" Let the Buchanuer men brag and bluster. Do you hold them fast to the issue and to a fair vote on it!

The Vote of Pennsylvania.

The official vote of Pennsylvania at the recent State election, stands as follows:

| | Buchanan. | Opposition |
|---|---|---|
| Canal Commissioner, | 212,886 | 210,112 |
| Congress, | 209,948 | 211,191 |

This shows a Buchanan majority of 2,774 on Canal Commissioner, and an Opposition majority of 1,246 on Congress. The aggregate vote was 422,998—an increase of 50,000 or 60,000 over any previous vote. It is thought that the vote next Tuesday will rise to 435,000, and both parties are sanguine as to the result.

Let no "last cards" of the Enemy deceive you!

It seems scarcely possible that the Buchanan men can bring forward any greater calumnies, or more outrageous lies generally, than they have already done, but they will, if they can invent them. Pay no attention to these last desperate attempts to deceive you!

☞ Haswell Beard is informed that his brother, in Massachusetts, lies at the point of death and is very anxious to see him.

Wisconsin papers will confer a favor by circulating this notice.

☞ The Emperor of Russia, it is said, has resolved to introduce the Gregorian calendar into Russia, and thus to do away with the difference of twelve days between the old style and the new. This change will greatly aid the development of commerce between Russia and the rest of the Christian world.

Challenge Closely.

Our opponents are organizing a great plan of fraudulent voting. Watch every pole, and challenge every man not known to be a legal voter. Keep lists of the names and residences of those who swear in their votes.

Don't Bet—You Lose your Vote.

Do you know that the game of the Buchaneers is desperate enough to lead you into making small bets, so as to challenge you at the polls? Beware!

The next Demand of the Slave Power. The Slave Trade to be Revived!

Encouraged by the success of their previous efforts at Slavery propagandism and confidently relying on the continued and unhesitating alliance and aid of the Doughface Democracy of the North, the Slave-holding aristocracy of the South are preparing for further attempts to extend and strengthen the "peculiar institution." The Charleston Standard leads off, in a very carefully drawn and able article, in favor of the restoration of the African Slave Trade. We make two extracts:

Though Slavery was possessed of every element necessary to a living social system, we felt it never could be defended upon pre-existing principles of opinion; but that, to its vindication and establishment, there was the necessity of distinct organization and intelligence; that instead of a flank, we must present a front—instead of fear we must have hope—instead of endurance, action—and, to the end of changing our attitude in the contest, and of planting our standard right in the very faces of our adversaries on progress, on a leading principle of Southern policy, to reopen and legitimate the Slave Trade.

* * * * * * *

To preserve equality in point of States; to recover equality in representation; to have any share, in fact, in Federal legislation, to demonstrate the efficiency of our institutions and turn the tide of commercial power from the North, and even to preserve the integrity of our present system of society, there has seemed to be the necessity of opening up the streams of our foreign labor.

This is to be the next move in the Southern game and it is to help the hopeful project along that the South goes in mass, for Buchanan. The struggle between Free and Slave Labor is to be a desperate one. Let the Mechanics and Working men of the North, stand up, side by side and shoulder to shoulder, in the great fight, for the rights, interests and dignity of Free Labor, and for its outspoken champion, John C. Fremont!

Buchanan Traitors at the South.

Col Keitt, one of the backers of Bully Brooks in his murderous and cowardly assault upon Senator Sumner, has, with his principal and other Buchanier traitors and Disunionists, been recently re-elected to Congress by the nation of South Carolina. Col. Keitt has availed himself of an early opportunity to talk to his constituents, and at Barnwell Court House, on the 20th inst., made a speech, the substance of which is thus stated in the Charleston Mercury:

A Committee was appointed to conduct Col. Keitt into the Court House, where he was received with rounds of applause. He spoke for nearly an hour and a half, and, in the most powerful and eloquent manner depicted the condition of the Union, and the probable results of pending conflicts. There was great excitement and evidenced manifested to the hopes he created that the Union would be soon dissolved.

One Col. Owens followed in a similar strain, and then this meeting of Southern Buchanan democrats (!) unanimously adopted the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Union should not survive the election of John C. Fremont to the Presidency of the United States, and in that event, in the opinion of this meeting, South Carolina should forthwith secede from the Union, and provide new guards for her future security.

Such is Buchanan democracy at the South.—Disloyalty to the Constitution and treason to the Union!

Potter Again.—We ask of the Republicans this question. Was it right in Judge Potter to receive pay from this State, at so much per diem, while he was absent at Philadelphia attending to nominate the K. N. Fremont? Who justifies this conduct and calls it honest? Let us hear.—Racine Democrat.

Let us first hear who "justifies and calls honest", the conduct of the Racine Democrat in publishing such stuff, which it knows to imply a calumny against an honorable man?

Judge Potter did not receive or charge pay for his time while at Philadelphia; nor did he for the time when he was absent at home sick, though he might justly have done so. And, as the working member of the Committee, a bill was introduced to pay him for his services as Secretary, and passed unanimously.

Judge Potter earned a great deal more than he received. Why don't you open your batteries against Messrs. Hull, Greulich and Gray, democratic members of the Committee, who took pay for time and labor not given to the State?

Get out Every Vote!

The fraudulent majority in Pennsylvania is less than three votes to each township in that State. A full vote would have carried the opposition State ticket as well as given a majority in Congressmen. People of Wisconsin! see that every freeman's vote is polled!

Nominations.—E. Fox Cook is the democratic candidate for Senator in Sheboygan Co.

The Republicans of Manitowoc and Calumet counties have nominated O. H. Platt for Senator.

Fred Horn is put in the field in the south district of Ozaukee Co. for Assembly on the Buchanan and Slavery side.

The democrats of the Fox Lake district, Dodge Co. have nominated Geo. W. Brown.

The democrats of the Milwaukee and Granville district in this county, have nominated for Assembly F. Moscowitz. In the south-east district of this county J. D. Bateman, last heard from as Senator from Waukesha county, is nominated by the democrats for Assembly.

In Iowa and Richland Counties, the democrats have nominated for Senator, G. C. Means; and for Assemblymen in Iowa Co. they have just put up J. M. Miller in the north district, and E. Cornish in the South district.

Seventh Ward Republican Caucus.

Meeting called to order, and on motion of C. K. Wells, Chas. Knobelsdorf was appointed Chairman of the meeting, and P. Engleman Secretary.

Peter Engleman and Edwin Palmer were appointed delegates to attend the Senatorial Convention, to be held on the 1st of Nov., and also to attend the County Convention.

On motion the meeting adjourned.

CHAS. KNOBELSDORF, Chairman.
P. Engleman, Secretary.

Second Ward Meeting.

At a meeting of Republicans of the 2d Ward, Milwaukee, held last evening, Jas. Glodney was chosen Chairman, and J. A. Phelps Secretary. It was voted that we proceed to elect 3 delegates to Senatorial Convention. Whereupon the following persons were duly elected:

Jas. A. Phelps, Theodore Shubert and Thos. Turton.

James Glodney, Chairman.
J. A. Phelps, Secretary.
Milwaukee, Oct. 29, 1856.

Freedom in Kansas.

A business letter just received from Dodgeville, Iowa Co, says:

"We have just received news from one of our Dodgeville boys, William H. Gill, one of the most quiet, modest, inoffensive young men in the world, stating that he is in a Kansas Jail, guarded by U. S. soldiers for the heinous crime of attempting to rescue his horse from a band of Border Ruffian horse-thieves, who had stolen it the previous night.

So we go!" C.

Mormonism.—Late European advices state that Mormonism is making such progress in Denmark as to excite considerable alarm in the minds of religious and reflecting men. Petitions have been sent in large numbers to the Government, asking that the Mormons may be restricted from the more public practice of their ceremonies.

Be Sure to be at Home Next Tuesday.

Let nothing but absolute necessity take you away from your place of residence, so as to lose your vote next Tuesday. Your country wants your services on that day.

TO THE DEMOCRACY OF MILWAUKEE COUNTY!

Fellow Citizens:—

The Fourth of November is approaching, and the well being of our Common Country demands at our hands, the sacrifice that patriotism willingly offers at the shrine of a pure and uncorrupted Democracy.

The candidates of the various parties are in the field, flushed with hopeful expectations and eager for the fray. Of the national candidates I shall say nothing, as I believe there is no difference existing between us on that head, but confine my observations strictly to local politics. You are aware that amongst the Democracy of this County, a very serious dissatisfaction exists, in relation to our County ticket, in consequence of the men nominated, and the shameless manner in which they obtained their nominations.—It surely cannot be known to the great bulk of Democratic voters, that the nominations were made in this city, weeks before the Convention, and that all that was required of the delegates assembled, was to endorse the creatures of the Milwaukee Caucus. To be enabled to do this, the wards and towns of the first district, were canvassed and delegates secured by contracts, promises of situations, and the more direct contents of well-lined pockets—one of the first principles of Democracy—rotation in office, was shamefully disregarded; the old incumbents renominated, and the most objectionable man in the District put on the ticket for Congress. How can this be accounted for, except on the supposition that bribery was the element in which delegates moved, and the gold of the wealthy profligate, the star that beckoned them from the path of duty, and secured their support to men, who are alike destitute of public integrity and private worth?

Seeing the walls placarded Monday, calling a meeting of independent Democrats at Young's Hall, I had great hopes that the honest men of the party were working up to a sense of the obligation they owe the State, and that this was a manifest of a desire to purify our party from the contagion of gambling politicians and moneyed office seekers.

I must say, that I am a greatly disappointed. I found at the meeting plenty of good, honest, hard working Democrats, who never asked, or expect office, willing to do their share in the work of Reform, if they only know how do so; but there were also there, enough of the secret friends of the nominated candidates to control the meeting, and shake dust in the eyes of the honest rank and file. A Committee appointed by the Chair, submitted a series of resolutions denouncing Messrs. Bade, Fitzgerald, and Keenan for asking a re-nomination, and endorsing Mr. Hadley for Congress. Why this partizan display, this invidious distinction? Answer, thou friend of destruction, thou "root of all evil," Money! Money! Why poor men should be pounced upon by the hawks of party, while the "fatted calf" of plethoric democracy goes unscathed, is a question that can find its solution only in the secret pay and promises given and made to the vile hacks of bank states politicians.

Are you, Germans and Irishmen, going to follow the small office seekers and grinding contractors, who attempt to trade in your votes and lead you to the support of men on your County and District tickets, who would live for ever in office, and sell you to the highest bidder in the halls of Congress? If you act not in time against the oligarchy of Democracy, and sweep the money-changers from the councils of the people, you will soon see the cherished principles of your party buried beneath the corruption of a heartless clique, and the offices of the State and nation delivered over to a more faithful opposition. I am aware you will be told that we cannot afford to lose a Congressman in the present state of political parties, but let me ask, is it not better to lose a dozen Congressmen, aye! the President and the Government, rather than foist an unworthy man upon the nation, or disgrace our city by electing to so exalted and responsible a station, a speculator and demagogue?

AN INDEPENDENT DEMOCRAT.

Milwaukee, Oct. 29.

Janesville Assembly Nominations.—The people of Janesville have the issue pretty distinctly made up for them in their Assembly nominations, both as regards National and State politics. The democrats have nominated A. Hyatt Smith, concerning whom we can tell our Janesville readers nothing now. The Republicans have nominated David Noggle, a man who was, in his place in the Legislature, two years ago, an honor to the city which he represented, and the acknowledged leader of the Assembly. Mr. Noggle has proved the sincerity of his Republicanism by doing yeoman's service for Freedom during this campaign, and the people of Janesville will, we think, support him with a will, and we trust, elect him with a good round majority.

Mr. Sellers Retires from the Field.

Citizens of Waukesha Co. Read!

Waukesha, Oct. 29, 1856.

Messrs. Editors:—As my name has been before the people of Waukesha county for an office lodged in them to bestow upon whomsoever they deem proper; and as I have accomplished a complete victory in the cause I undertook, according to my motto. Therefore, as I came before the people on my own responsibility, without consulting men or party, I deem it also within my power to withdraw my name in the same manner. You will do me a great favor, then, by publishing in your daily paper the above, as I want it distinctly understood before the day of election that I am not a candidate for any office, and that I wish the field clear in the coming election, and desire that both sides may have a fair show, so that we can judge of the issue.

Yours Respectfully,
M. SELLERS.

The Last of the Toledo.

The Buffalo Republic of Monday last, gives us the following information as to the number and names of the persons lost by the wreck of the Toledo. If the estimate of the Republic be correct, there must have been from sixty to sixty-five lives lost. The Commercial says that the propeller was worth $40,000, not insured, and the cargo $200,000. We append the article from the Republic:

The Toledo, Capt. Densham, left here early on Saturday morning, the 18th inst, with about 300 tons of merchandize on board for Milwaukee and Chicago. Her crew numbered some 28 or 25 persons, including Capt. Densham, of this city, who leaves a wife and one child; George Hill, 1st mate, resides near Cleveland, married and has a family; David Vance, 2d mate, brother of Mrs. Densham, unmarried; Edward McManman, 1st engineer, married and has a family residing near Cleveland; B. F. Stratton, 2d engineer, unmarried, formerly of New York.

In addition to the above were some 40 steerage passengers.

A Mrs. Hattie Frazee, formerly of this city, late the wife of Lucius Wentworth, deceased, with three of her first husband's children, aged about four, seven and twelve years respectively, were in the cabin. They are all supposed to be lost. Mrs. Frazee was returning to her husband in Milwaukee, where her two eldest children now are. She has been to this city to collect her little ones together, and to settle up some business affairs connected with her first husband's estate, and was last and here by the criminal negligence of her legal adviser for nearly three months. Preparing to return by railroad without finishing her business, she accepted the invitation of Capt. Densham, with whom she was intimately acquainted, and has, we fear, shared his untimely fate.

Watertown & Columbus R. R.

The work on this road is progressing rapidly, and during next week the spiling of Mud Lake will be completed, and the track laid to Lowell station. The grading between Lowell station and Columbus is nearly completed and ready for the ties. We are assured by the Chief Engineer that beyond a doubt the road will be in readiness for the regular trains of cars to this village by the 1st of December next.—Columbus Jour.

The completion of this road to Columbus will not only give that thriving town a fresh start, but will open a new and important avenue of travel and business, to the enterprize of our city. Columbus is situated in the heart of an agricultural district which, in point of beauty, fertility, and skillful cultivation, may safely challenge comparison with any in the State. The town itself is well located, already enjoys an active and profitable trade, and with the opening of the Railroad from this city, must become the station and business centre for a large region of country round about

Talk With Your Friends.

Talk with your friend before the day of election. We have nothing to do but a calm and candid discussion of our principles. The more they are talked about the more will they be cherished. An hour's talk with a doubting friend will usually accomplish more than the perusal of a dozen documents, or the listening to a dozen speeches.

Even the Indians Testify Against Them.

Mr. Newcomb, an educated Delaware Indian from Kansas, stopped in our town over Tuesday night. He is on his way home from Washington, where he has been to transact business for his tribe. His home is north of the Kansas River, and near the Missouri line; consequently he is familiar with the outrages perpetrated by the "Pro Slavery Ruffians" officially connected with Government of the United States, and their allies from the South, upon the Free State men of that Territory. We understand that some of our Buchanan friends undertook to draw out some statements or admissions from him to refute the testimony of those who are living and suffering here, but they soon found that the politicians they were making was all on the wrong side and desisted.

Mr. N. is a cousin of John Sarcoxie, the Delaware Chief who recently told Gov. Geary that if he did not protect the Delawares from the ruffian thieves of Missouri, they would take matter into their own hands, and do it effectually.—Appleton Free Press.

Very Natural.—The Sentinel is very solicitous for the election of Mr. Davis of Columbia county to the Legislature. It admits that Davis went against Milwaukee, in the recent struggle for the Land Grant, but is willing to forget and forgive, as it makes itself particularly anxious for his election.—News of yesterday.

So far from admitting that Mr. Davis "went "against Milwaukee in the recent struggle for "the Land Grant," the Sentinel expressly stated that he went for us. We know Dr. Davis to be a fast and reliable friend to Milwaukee, an honest and efficient legislator and a true and tried Republican. We are, indeed, "solicitous for his election," and trust that every man in Columbia County, who loves Freedom, abhors Slavery and respects manhood, integrity and independence, will vote for M. M. Davis.

"Bread of Extracts"—"Poisy," the congenial correspondent of the Falsifier New, discourses as follows, in his last letter:

Connect out will teach a wholesome lesson to her nigger-worshipping citizens—that all their prayers and whines and howls benefit not one particle either the nigger (their God,) or themselves. However hitting Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe may consider a rank buck nigger as a boudoir companion for herself, he is by no means a considerat on even in the administration of affairs in this Republic.

This ch ming style of electioneering is especially appropriate to the Border Ruffian democracy and the advocates of Slavery Extension.

Singular Accident.—A man named Edward Cate, while engaged in a fight at the South Ferry, Brooklyn, Saturday night last, had his neck dislocated by a blow. He was taken to the City Hospital on Monday and it was supposed that it could be reset and that he would recover.—N. Y. Times.

We learn that Dr. Seibert, of this city, has successfully treated several cases of the kind.

MARINE INTELLIGENCE.

New Propeller.—The Detroit Free Press of the 21st says: "We noticed in port, yesterday, the new propeller Montgomery, built in season at Newport, by Mr. Bushnell, for Capt. Ward of this city. Her dimensions are as follows: length over all, 210 feet; breadth of beam, 33 feet, depth of hold, 14 feet; and a capacity of about 1,000 tons. She has a low pressure engine, manufactured at the Detroit Locomotive works; cylinder 40 inches diameter, and 40 inches stroke. She is one of the largest and is said to be the strongest propeller now on the lakes. All her fastenings are Lake Superior iron. She leaves here in a day or two for Collingwood, and from thence will proceed to Chicago. Next season, we understand, she will be placed on the Lake Superior line on propellers."

Sinking of Barges.—The Evergreen City Times of the 20th inst. says: "The propeller Edith came into the river on Saturday last, drawing nine feet of water astern, and took on 7000 bushels at Kirkland's Warehouse, and next day cleared for Buffalo. The water is now sufficiently deep in the channel to admit of the entrance of vessels of large draught."

Arrival.—We see the beautiful large schooner Millard Fillmore, discharging a cargo of railroad iron for the Racine & Miss. R. R.; also schooner Kate L. Bruce, unloading coal at Knapp & Cole's yard; schooner Indian, just arrived with a cargo of coal—all of which are engaged to freight back with wheat. We notice the new dredge is in full swing, doing wonders in the way of clearing out and deepening the channel, so successfully has this been accomplished that vessels not drawing more than 11½ feet can gain an easy entrance.—Racine Adv.

Loss on Ice.—The schooner St. Paul, Capt. Harry Faith, laden with coal, went ashore Sunday week, on the Manitoulin, opposite Saginaw Bay, Lake Huron. By throwing over about 60 tons of coal, she was worked off, and arrived here safely yesterday. Capt. Faith reports three other vessels having gone ashore at the same time and place with him, viz: the schooner Odonia, Capt. Allen; brig Globe, Capt. McCrea; and schooner Daniel Brewer. The two former, though fitt of water, may be got off, but the Brewer is a total loss; she belongs to T. Hamilton, of Cleo, and was laden with coal for this city.—The Globe was laden with corn from here to Buffalo, part of which was thrown over to lighten her. She is owned by the Lake Navigation Co., who have Capt. Silas Fred there with the steamer MacQueen and the Racine, (which went to aid the Nile, ashore a week since at North Manitou.) The MacQueen was taken by A. B. Williams, after he's vessel, the Newhouse, but releasing her, she arrived here safe Saturday; the tug will be repaired, together with the steer tug Saltzer, to get off the wrecked vessels as th. The schooner Topolo is owned by Her Captain, (Peter Allen,) and by Messrs. Banks & Butler, of Chicago. The Manitoulins are bad islands to be on.

The barque Swanking, Capt. McNeil, went ashore Saturday, on North Manitou. She is owned by Jesse Hoyt & Co., of New York city.

By a dispatch from Detroit, we learn that the schooner Lancaster, Capt. Thompson, is ashore on Whiskey Island, west of the Beavers, in Lake Michigan.—Chicago Tim.

COMMERCIAL.

THE MARKETS, &c.

[OFFICE OF THE DAILY SENTINEL, Milwaukee, October 30, 1856.]

Received by Mil. & Miss. R. R.—229 bbls flour, 13,610 bus wheat, 214 do potatoes, 121 hides, 128 pelts, 4 bales do, 90 kegs butter, 2 cars hogs.

By La Crosse & Mil. R. R.—8,492 bus wheat, 133 do barley, 225 bbls flour, 140 hides, 62 sheep pelts, 65 bbs pearl ash, 6 do eggs, 5,964 lbs sundries.

De. Watertown Division—2,620 bus wheat, 256 bbls flour, 60 sacks do, 5 lbs do sundries.

By Mil. & Hor. R. R.—3,040 bus wheat, 43 do oats, 328 bbls flour.

For receipts of grain yesterday, but market dull as usual. The unfavorable winds keep vessels back, and our warehouses are nearly full of wheat waiting shipment. With this condition of things and with high freights and a very tight money market, dealers cannot be expected to be anxious or without, and on time to suit purchasers.

It is 25 miles from Milwaukee, 200 acres under cultivation, a large and well finished house, good barn, stables, ice house, fish pond large enough to supply half a dozen families, and capable of being divided into farms of 40 to 80 acres, giving to each an abundant supply of water, timber, and highway conveniences.

For further particulars enquire of FIRE—PIERCE'S MATCH FACTORY BURNT—About 11 o'clock yesterday morning the Match factory of R W Pierce & Co, on the hill, in the Sixth Ward was discovered to be on fire, and when the alarm was given was entirely destroyed The alarm was imperfectly sounded, in the lower part of the city and the only company on the ground were Long no Companies No 1 and 2, as the Hook and Ladder Company The engines channelled all the streams in the neighborhood but could do little with an inadequate supply of water The loss on building, stock &c is nearly $7,000, on which there are no insurance Whatever is saved is fortunate, however, by the proprietors, is the latter portion of their building at this season of the year and by the wing it will employ out of their fifty or sixty hands We hope to see the hard working company proprietors of the establishment all right again, in a few weeks, and long after Success to them!

ELEGANT ENGRAVINGS—We had the pleasure, yesterday, of examining a fine collection of engravings opened at Arndt's Bookstore having been selected in New York at one of the establishments of Goupil & Vibert and others, with excellent taste The variety is such as to suit the different tastes of those who look for pictures and as there is no law to prevent men from feeling a preference for one picture over another, and people out West are rather independent of the Court of Orleans, we assume safely that both of It has sold Worth will smile, Mr Arndt may expect a rich crop of words of remarks over his portfolio We think those whose perceptions are true to nature fail to find many real gems in the collection, but the proprietor deserves well of his country for such a step to this department

FIRE DEPARTMENT REVIEW AT CHICAGO—The Chicago Fire Department, 900 strong, with 15 or 20 engines in the carts and hook and ladder cars, and guests from Milwaukee, Racine, Adrian, &c, turned out for the annual review on Tuesday last The show was a splendid one The "broom" was taken by Engine No 7, of Chicago—The detachment of our Milwaukee firemen, who went to Chicago returned yesterday, highly delighted with their trip

Notices of Books.

THE CONQUEST OF KANSAS by Missouri and her Allies, A History of the Troubles in Kansas, by WILLIAM PHILLIPS.

We have from ARCHIBALD WILSON, Bookseller, this very interesting book, just published from the pen of the able and fearless correspondent of the New York Tribune—He has gone through the whole war from the beginning, many times in peril of his life from the ruffian parties, and is abundantly well posted to give a complete account of the affairs of the Territory That the statements of the narrative is interesting no one can doubt who has read his letters PHILLIPS, SAMPSON & Co, of Boston, are the publishers

MURRAY GRELLA, With Pug Dingle, by HENRY M BAKER Harper & Bros publishers

This is one of the most interesting publications of the day, being the recollections and reflections of a gentleman who resided for years in Greece, and was a diligent student of her past and present condition WILSON has it for sale

THE OLD REGIME AND THE REVOLUTION by DE TOCQUEVILLE Harper & Bros publishers

This translation of the delectable, thoughtful De Tocqueville's last production will be welcomed by literary men in this country Among the few French statesmen in not now in the field of philosophic research, the author is one of the few, among the highest, and his writings are always received with pleasure and studied with profit—He is best known to Americans by his work "Democracy in America" and the many students of that book will be glad to go with the author in his examination of the phenomena of the old French Regime and the Revolution

Wilson has a supply of the book

IRVING'S LIFE OF WASHINGTON, Vol III, G P PUTNAM & Co, publishers.

We have from R C ARNOLD, bookseller, this and the following publications.

Mr Irving states in a brief preface that he expected, in commencing his work to complete it in three volumes, but finds it yet unfinished The lovers of good old Geoffrey Crayon every one of whom must needs possess a copy of his Life of the Father of His Country, will surely not regret this The present volume brings down the history of the Revolutionary War to the time when Sir Henry Clinton, the British General, sent that expedition to the South, which was finally captured at Yorktown

THE GOLDEN DAYS OF '49 AND DOWN THE ISLAND with by an American, DIX, EDWARDS & Co, publishers

These, and the two following books, are pleasing and collect one of narratives &c from Putnam's Magazine, and all who do not find the magazine on the shelves are to possess in a convenient form some of the best things in it, will do well to call on R C ARNOLD and supply themselves The writer of the "Golden Days" in '49 which was an immediate relief pile at Rangoon, in India, is of all etc the most amusing writer of the young Virginia doctor who takes service from mere curiosity as surgeon or board the British war steamer Philadelphian, and goes through the war against the Burmese He has an eye to the picturesque as well as the ludicrous, in what he does not learn of the life of the Burmese is not worth knowing of or

SAILS by J W DE FOREST Dix, Edwards & Co

This is another of the very interesting series of letters from Putnam's Magazine, and will be welcomed by hosts of readers in the book form, as it has already been and raised within the covers of the magazine

POLITICAL ESSAY, by LARKIN GODWIN Dix, Edwards & Co

We are pleased to see these six essays of one of the ablest essayists in America, in this neat and convenient form Their ability and independence has gone far to build up the reputation of Putnam and it would have been injustice to leave them behind, when other excerpts were being "booked" Goodwin's Political Essays will bear reading as I study re carefully, and new truths and new views will appear on each perusal

HISTORY OF THE STRUGGLE FOR SLAVERY EXTENSION OR RESTRICTION by HORACE GREELEY Dix, Edwards & Co

This pamphlet history of the great struggle brought down by the careful hand of Mr Greeley, from the Declaration of Independence to the present time is a pamphlet vade mecum for politicians and people, and contains an array of facts, figures and votes on the interesting question, which can be obtained in no other form ARNOLD has it for sale

THE DUTY OF AMERICAN SCHOLARS TO POLITICS AND THE TIMES, DIX, EDWARDS & Co

This is a handsome pamphlet copy of Mr GEORGE WILLIAM CURTIS' "Nile Notes" "Potiphar" Curtis's—capital companions Address before the Literary Societies of the Wesleyan University It has been deserved by the subject of much praise by Republican papers in every section The Buchanan men could scarcely be expected to like it

MUSICAL SOCIETY CONCERT—On Monday evening another of their popular Concerts at Young's Hall to-morrow evening. See programme in our advertising columns

RAILROAD IRON—North 17,000 tons of railroad bars have been received at that port this season sufficient to lay about 200 miles of road, exclusive of sidetracks There is a good deal of iron behind yet that ought to be here this season

NOYES, FLENTJEN & CO'S CABINET WARE ESTABLISHMENT—We devoted a few leisure moments, yesterday morning, to a hurried survey of the premises occupied by NOYES, FLENTJEN & Co This mammoth establishment is well worth a visit The large four story brick building on East Water street, occupied by this enterprising firm, is filled, from top to bottom, with a very choice and extensive assortment of Cabinet Ware, Upholstery &c, of every variety of style and price from the simplest and cheapest to the most costly and luxurious. We saw there yesterday sets of furniture sofas, lounges, chairs, side boards, mirrors, and other articles, which for elegance of style and beauty of finish, cannot be excelled anywhere. Some of the French Brocatelle chairs and lounges, and of the Rosewood sofas are particularly rich and tasteful, and none who need costly or well made furniture need go to New York, or Boston, to get it. The stock on hand varies from $50,000 to $80,000, and the patterns and prices have so wide a range that all varieties of taste can be suited and purses of every size accommodated. The proprietors are enterprising, industrious and obliging gentlemen and their establishment is one of those Home Institutions which we desire to see well patronized.

THEATRE—YOUNG'S HALL—Mr JOHNSON, who was well received and greatly applauded last evening, makes his second appearance in it as favorite pieces for to night He is an actor of the old school and plays his part naturally Those who enjoy really good acting will appreciate Mr Johnson As his engagement is a very brief one, the opportunity of seeing him in some of his best pieces to night should not be neglected

TO THE PATRONS OF ART.

E. CARROLD, Rockseller, 184 East Water St has recently completed the personal selection of an extensive and valuable invoice of Prints, from which are some of the finest specimens that ever came of the kind, to the engraver There is a complete catalogue, to render the choice a more desirable If he feels any degree of complacency on the subject he arises from the assurance that the selection was made almost without regard to cost, with the intention to secure works of the greatest merit The original out for enumeration comprises a small portion of the whole which is the fortunes after the choice of over of the old masters and most eminent modern artists in Line, Stipple, Mezzo tint and Lithograph that are in dark room Framed and handling Regarding it to be a matter of the utmost and requirements of the time and adapted to the Gallery or Drawing Room

1 to 6 Classics Consolator and Remunerator Mater Dolorosa, The three Marys, Ora Pro nobis, and the Dead Christ, after Annibal Carracci In the selection of the interest which naturally attaches to sacred subject and think which the genius of a great master evokes

7 to 11 Peace and Magnetism, (2) Magnetism, (3) also after Ary Scheffer Those who are familiar with Dante and Beatrice, will need no pointer for perceiving the correctness of the ideas that conceptions so distinctly reproduced here.

12 and 13 Christ Blessing Children and Weeping over Jerusalem, after Claxton and Overbeck, respectively In this novel and appropriate form will make attractive ornaments

14 U S Senate of 1850 a finely colored proof copy

15 to 17 Water Spots and his friends after Faed the painters of "Evangeline" This picture derives an enhanced value from the fact that it contains actual portraits of many of the literati of the period

18 and 19 Washington and Clay Full lengths, in Mezzotint

18 Cromwell a Last Interview with his Favorite Daughter full of force and character

20 to 23 Studies from Leonardo DaVinci The interest rich in whatever relates to great artists is heightened by his admirable grouping and accessories of the picture

24 and 25 With and Against the Stream Small full illustration of the sunshine and shadows of domestic life

26 28 and 34 The Mother's Dream, Believer's Vision and Mother's Grave These pictures appealing to the religious sensibilities of all, cannot fail to be great favorites

27, 29, 31 The Sisters, (Illustrative of Keble's "Holy Innocents,") The Glorious Company of the Apostles Praise Thee, and La Desiderata La Bible, (after Ary Scheffer)

30 Delaware relating his Adventures A large and full composition

32 Divorce of Josephine, including eleven character portraits

33 The Country Election, a thorough Yankee sketch

34 to 36 Coming to the Point, Power of Music Contentment and Scorning A distinguishing quality of Bingham's and Mount's productions though Hogarthian in treatment is their strict fidelity to certain phases of American rural character

37 and 38 Morning in Spring and Evening, in Autumn

39 The bathing maiden and nature master

40, 43 Head of Christ and Angel Gabriel, (Lauder)

41 The Mother's Joy, and St Cecelia, (Paul de la Roche)

42 Head of Christ and Angel Gabriel, (Lauder)

43 44 The Mother's Joy, and St Cecelia, (Paul de la Roche) Speaking said of these masterpieces would be like the kindred attempt to paint the Lily or add Ac

45 46 The Immaculate Conception, (after Murillo) one of the Virgins and Madonna of Nadir (both Murillo)

47 The Annunciation, (Salvators) a most excellent copy

48 49, 50 Washington Inaugural, First Prayer in Congress in Committee's Taken Three Revolutionary Incidents effectively rendered

51 to 56 Washington at Queen, Soldier, Farmer and Citizen

57 to 60 The five senses, illustrated

61 71 Lady Evelyn Gower, and the Dogs of St Bernard (Landseer)

62 68, 64 The Retreat, Lion Chase, and Boar Hunt, (Horace Vernet)

65 The Victory (Paul de la Roche)

66 Judith, (Horace Vernet) full of power

67 68 Le Bon Menage and Le Manvais Menage strong light and shade

69 Entitle de Savoyenne (White)

70 The Contented Negro, (Williams)

71 to 73 Photographs of The Resurrection, Blessing Children and Ramsay, excellent

74 See Saw, (Webster) a very good design, and brings back many pleasant reminiscences

75 The Mountain Stream (after the Landscape process)

76 77 Fallen Angel and Tears of Repentance (Lauder) Very impressive in Mezzotint

78 Sale of the Pet Lamb A fine colored copy of this superior print

79 Outline feeling delineation of one of the cardinal virtues of boyhood

80 Both sides of the Channel, a rustic characteristic of England and France

81 82, 83 Samuel, Timothy and Milton, three gems in uniform style

ECA does not question that the good people of Wisconsin will sustain their previous reputation for appreciating efforts to elevate to the realities and love of the beautiful
